SCI Engineered Materials, Inc. Adds Exclusive Solar Representative for Europe

COLUMBUS, Ohio (October 17, 2008) SCI Engineered Materials, Inc. (OTC Bulletin Board: SCIA), a manufacturer of ceramics and metals for advanced applications in the physical vapor deposition industry, today announced the appointment of CCT-Solar as the Company's exclusive manufacturer's representative for 26 countries in Europe plus Russia and Turkey.

During the past two years the Company has been expanding its presence in the rapidly growing Thin Film Solar market. The specialized needs of this market complement SCI Engineered Materials' core manufacturing capabilities. The Company has developed planer and rotatable Transparent Conductive Oxide targets for the solar market, which extend the Company's growing lines of metal and ceramic sputtering targets. Specific production equipment has been added in response to increased customer demand and orders for Thin Film Solar targets in Asia, Europe and North America.

Mike Barna, Vice President of Sales, said, "Due to the rapid growth of Thin Film Solar photovoltaics we needed more support for our growing list of solar customers in Europe and Eurasia. Through this exclusive agreement, SCI Engineered Materials significantly enhances its capabilities to respond to customer needs as well as market opportunities. CCT-Solar is recognized as a leader in introducing new technologies in high tech industries throughout Europe and Eurasia through established relationships with Thin Film Solar manufacturers. This marketing arrangement accelerates implementation of the Company's strategy to serve the global Thin Film Solar market."
